

Stober, Poltavets & Associates joins Swedish Chamber of Commerce for CIS

Swedish Chamber of Commerce for Russia & CIS

Promote trade between Sweden, Russia and CIS

Stober, Poltavets & Associates is the newest member to join in the Swedish Chamber of Commerce for Russia & the CIS, which includes leading foreign businesses operating in the region. The Chamber was formed to exchange experiences and ideas between Sweden and CIS countries, with the aim of improving cooperation and trade.

The Swedish Chamber of Commerce for Russia & the CIS brings together different businesses to promote trade between Sweden and CIS countries, to increase opportunities for foreign companies, and to benefit the CIS investment climate.

“We are intrigued by the opportunities the Swedish Chamber of Commerce for Russia & CIS provides to address economic development for established and startup operations in the region,” said Stober, Poltavets & Associates Partner Marcus Stober. “The work of SP&A and its values are a good fit with the other members of the Chamber.”

We are intrigued by the opportunities the Swedish Chamber of Commerce for Russia & CIS provides to address economic development for established and startup operations in the region.
